County Court

P.14 In the name of God, Amen, I William Lewis, Snr. of the County of White and State of Tennessee being sick and weak in body, but of sound and perfect mind and memory (For which I thank God) and calling to mind the mortality of the body and knowing that it is appointed for all men, once to die, do make ordain constitute an ordain this my last will and testament, that is to say, principally and first of all, I give and bequeath my soul into the hands of Almighty God who gave it, my body to the dust to be buried in decent Christian burial at the direction of my executors herein after to be named, nothing doubting, but at the general resurrection I shall receive the same again by the almighty power of God, and as touching and concerning such worldly estate, wherewith, it hath pleased God to help me I give bequeath devise, and dispose of the same in form and manner following, Towit:

1st. I desire that all my just and lawful debts be levied raised and paid out of my personal estate.

2nd. I give and bequeath to my well beloved wife Mary Lewis, all and singular my mansion house lands and tenements, household furniture, farming utensils, and stock of horses, cattle and hogs by her freely to be used and enjoyed for and during her natural life except therefrom, such things as shall herein after be named

3rd. I give and bequeath to my younger son, Thomas Lewis, the tract of land wherein I now live containing sixty acres, and also, one other tract adjoining containing twenty-nine acres, both held by deed
